

ENGLISH LANGUAGE & LOGICAL REASONING

1. Correct Answer: B

Explanation: The passage repeatedly explains why low inflation leads to lower nominal GDP, which affects tax collections, fiscal deficit calculations, and Budget assumptions.

2. Correct Answer: C

Explanation: The writer notes benefits for consumers but problems for fiscal math, offering a nuanced analysis rather than praise or criticism.

3. Correct Answer: B

Explanation: The passage explicitly states that a revised higher GDP for the previous year reduces the required growth rate to meet the new year's target.

Legal Reasoning

- 11. (c) Just informing them does not suffice to reasonable measure. Considering the degree of threat an appropriate reasonable measure would be marking the areas where land mines are located. Thus, option (c) is right.
- 12. (d) Simran is no longer a visitor because Raj asked her not to come back again thus revoking the permission granted. And a visitor is only a person who is invited or permitted. Hence, option (d) is the answer.
- 13. (d) Raj is only liable to the people he has invited or permitted, those who are his lawful visitors under occupier's liability. All the other options are out of context. Thus, option (d) is the right answer.
- 14. (d) All the three are correct, Raj took reasonable measures. All the other options are out of context. Therefore, option (d) is the most appropriate answer.
- 15. (d) Remedies can be in the form of awards and injunctions, the person in possession of the land also has the obligation and permission can be revoked. Therefore, option (d) is the most appropriate answer.
- 16. (d) Goalkeeper will not be liable due to volenti non fit injuria and the rest is not foreseeable. All the other options are out of scope. Therefore, option (d) is the most appropriate answer.
- 17. (d) Since duty of care is not limited by foreseeability, Roshin now is responsible for all harm resulting from her actions. All the other options are out of context. Therefore, option (d) is the most appropriate answer.
- 18. (d) There was no injury. Disturbance must be of such unreasonable nature. All the other options are out of context. Therefore, option (d) is the most appropriate answer.
- 19. (d) He did not give his consent to be hurt due to negligence. All the other options are out of context. Therefore, option (d) is the most appropriate answer.
- 20. (a) He did not consent to being pulled up to the ring. He was supposed to be a mere spectator. His punch was in self-defence to a fight started by Bay Gun and thus Bay consented to any harm coming upon him.
